MATTAPOISETT SELECTMEN'S MEETING
SEPTEMBER 12, 1989-by VIRGINIA MORGAN

Mattapoisett Inn owner Marc C. Goddu responded to several complaints one-by-one that neighbors have made to Selectmen this past summer. He told an audience of about 70 that he will make every effort to correct the complaints, including noise from customers leaving the Inn, parking problems, loud music and offensive odors from the dumpster. "Come see me if you have a problem to see if we can solve it without involving the Selectmen and the press", Mr. Goddu said.

Selectmen Chairman Bernard F. Talty explained the Board for the first time has agreed to ask the complainants, and the person who the complaint is against, to respond in writing. Previously, the complaints were placed on file; "now we want to bring them out in the open as it is important for the public to know we listen to complaints."

The problems were brought to the attention of Selectmen by a letter on June 28, 1989 from Howard Stillman Bates, writing for Mattapoisett villagers. He wrote, "We appeal for your cooperation to cease any noise, music or vibrations that can be heard beyond the interior of the Mattapoisett Inn building. Also, loud voices, late at night, from some exiting patrons (periodic urinating and vomiting)."

Taking the complaints one-by-one, the first was overcrowding in the Inn, a matter attended to in July by Building Inspector Andrew J. Bobola and Fire Chief Donald C. Wood. Their recommendations included clearing fire exits, removing padlocks, installing additional lighted emergency exit signs, the designation of a person responsible for controlling the number of people allowed in the building at any one time, as well as controlling the parking situation. The officials noted the Mattapoisett Inn has always tried to manage a first-rate business, which is not easily done in the village district.

Mr. Goddu responded, "These problems have been taken care of to the satisfaction of both officials. We seldom are overcrowded and I try to keep people from crowding the bar areas." The Inspector commented there was overcrowding last Saturday. The dining area capacity is about 190; the bar area is 80 capacity.

Parking: Chairman of Selectmen Bernard Talty said Mr. Goddu was informed patrons could park in the beach lot after 6 p.m., the wharf area by sticker only and the streets. The Chairman said the owner of the business is responsible for informing patrons where to park. "You cannot expect the town to do it for you." Mr. Goddu said it is a long walk to the beach lot for patrons.

Police Chief James F. Moran said he has issued tickets for some street parking and wharf parking. The 15-minute parking on Water Street is for customers of other businesses. "You (Mr. Goddu) aren't the only business there. Even if you become successful, you can't take away from others."

Mr. Goddu said it is damaging to his business to keep losing parking spaces and to have his customers get a $15. parking ticket after enjoying a dinner at the Inn. He said for every angry customer he could lose 10 more customers.

Peter Perkins and several others complained the lines drawn on the wharf designating no parking areas were difficult to see in the daytime and impossible at night. Several people said they had friends who had received tickets after dining at the Inn.

Mr. Talty said the Board of Selectmen will hold a meeting with Wharf Commissioner Steven Mach to work on changes in the wharf parking spaces for next year. In response to a recommendation that parking be allowed on the wharf unrestricted after 10 p.m., Mr. Goddu said this would be a good idea as his business has a large influx of people after 10 p.m.

Loud Music: One of the major complaints was the loud music that can be heard several houses away.

The owner said he had to let one band go because it was too loud. "I'm trying to cooperate and am considering having the decibels checked and soundproofing the walls and building a double exit door." In an August 28th letter to Selectmen, Mr. Goddu wrote, "Yes, we have music. We have had live entertainment for all of our 11½ years. We have made many changes over these years to minimize any noise caused by this. We have a business in a residential area. We have a permit."

Noise: After 1 a.m. the slamming of car doors, foul language in the parking lot, revving car motors were highlighted as the major problems. Mr. Bates' letter noted residents have filed appeals with the Selectmen for midnight closing of the Inn, but to no avail. Chief Moran said he has received many complaints about noise in the parking lot.

The owner said an earlier closing would be dangerous to his business. "There's not much I can do about people in the parking lot. I can't ask them to push their cars out on the street. I have signs up asking customers to consider neighbors. Foul language I cannot control."

Mr. Robert Atkinson, 10 Cannon street said he lives behind the Inn's parking lot and has been awakened at night with doors slamming and loud car noises. He said the noise is worse this year than last. He also cited the loud music and odors from the dumpster as other problems. "We would like to treat you as a neighbor; we would like you to treat us with the same respect."

Mr. Atkinson said he had prepared three suggestions for compromise: 1. Require the hiring of a uniformed police officer between certain hours to 1 a.m.; 2. Reduce noise level and contain the music within the building; 3. Additional dumpsters and keep them closed.

Offensive Odors: - A concern expressed by Mr. Atkinson that the odor is especially bad on hot days. He felt the dumpster should be covered.

Chairman Talty said, in fairness to Mr. Goddu, the hot days have made a problem, but he has done what he can to correct it. Mr. Goddu explained he will enclose the dumpster within two weeks.

Control: Several persons expressed opinions that there should be a uniformed police officer in the area in the late evening hours. A comment was made that the problem is "booze" and can be handled by raising prices to pay for a police officer; police visibility is needed. "If you don't hire a police officer, you are asking us to live with the problem."

Mr. Goddu said he cannot afford to hire a police officer every night.

Mr. Talty announced at the conclusion of the meeting that a progress report would be made on the corrections Mr. Goddu has made, on December 12. Mr. Goddu agreed to that date.

In other business, Selectmen:

MET WITH Mr. John Thompson, representative of Cafeteria Plan Advisors, Inc. (CPA), an administrative-type group to handle the health insurance plan for town employees. He said, "Your carrier (Blue Cross/Blue Shield) will not change, nor will there be any change in the benefits they now receive."

Selectmen had invited Mr. Thompson to inform them of the plan after receiving literature on the proposal. No decision was reached. Selectmen will review the material and get back to Mr. Thompson.

The plan is both state and federally approved. Basically, this is an administrative procedure to pay for medical expenses penses by pre-tax dollars. Under the plan an enrolled employee could have an increase in their pay. Examples were shown in a company pamphlet.

NOTED Selectman DeCosta will check with an experienced person to see if the door frame in the old police garage can be raised to fit the senior van. An earlier check found the doorway to be about six inches too low.

The note from the Council on Aging Chairman, Eleanor Lynch, says, "The Board of Directors of the Council feel it imperative to find garage space for the van. The other morning when John Bowman arrived at the town garage he found the front door of the van wide open. With the colder weather coming and the age of the van, we must seek garaging. Is it possible that the van could be garaged at the new police station? We feel there is a serious safety factor in having the van parked outside overnight."

Selectmen took no action on the request to use the new police station garage, but will check into adjusting the opening of the old garage.

RECEIVED A LETTER from Mr. Arthur Leclair, 175 North Street commenting on the problems at SEMASS. "Abdicating responsibilities is not what is best for our town. SEMASS raised fees before the ink was dry on the original contract. They would do the same if we let them take over the landfill. I am sure you can find ways of keeping us afloat without giving away our landfill."

Constitution Week

Mrs. Clara D. Morgan, Regent of the New Bedford Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR), in requesting the Board of Selectmen to declare the week of September 17-23 as Constitution week said that President George Bush has declared this week as Constitution Week in order to make the public more aware of this event and to promote a greater patriotic awareness.

The Proclamation reads: "Our Founding Fathers, in order to secure the blessings of liberty for themselves and their posterity, did ordain and establish a Constitution for the United States of America, and

"It is of the greatest import that all citizens fully understand the provisions and principles contained in the Constitution in order to support it, preserve it and defend it against encroachment, and

"The two hundred second anniversary of the signing of the Constitution provides a historic opportunity for all Americans to learn about and recall achievements of our Founders, and to reflect on the rights and privileges of citizenship, as well as its attendant responsibilities, and

"The independence guaranteed to the American people by the Constitution should be celebrated by appropriate

The Symphonic Band has been part of the cultural life of Southeastern Massachusetts since 1962. Professional and fine amateur musicians including capable students come together to perform classical, semi-classical and contemporary music arranged for the symphonic band. Guest soloists and groups are drawn from the best New England musical institutions. The primary aim of the organization is to make good music available in the community and to give musicians a chance to share their talent. The band practices at ORR High School on Tuesday evenings and capable players are welcome. A second aim is to persuade young people to pursue musical careers in education or performance by providing them an opportunity to perform and by awarding schoalrships to promising students. Your support of the concerts makes the scholarships possible. Over the years some 69 students have received awards. More information is available from Mrs. Marsha Kelley at 758-2072 or Robert Coquillette at 758-4972.

Matthews will describe 11 major zoning changes which have been proposed. Attendees will have the opportunity to make comments or to ask questions.

Some of the more significant zoning changes to be addressed include: summer seasonal conversion regulations, establishment of a Mattapoisett River Aquifer Protection District, site plan review and approval for all significant business, industrial and multifamily residential development, a new mixed use development district to encourage a strengthening of the town's tax base, a cluster housing option which would encourage developers to preserve open space, and a new water-dependent district to protect uses requiring direct access to the water.

"We hope to see and hear from many of you on September 20th", said the Planning Board members.

It has been a summer long project. The south face of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church has been bared to the wood that has not been revealed for 160 years and the tower has been renewed from the effects of long exposure at a lofty level. The steeple now gleams white as does the whole front of the structure as the lacework of the scaffold begins its descent.

God and the Church, we take on a vow to raise them to understand God's calling to a moral life. How much does this cost?

In the sermon, Rev. Patch will speak to our growing concern over drugs, and the President's "war" against them. We will be called upon to consider what our role should be as responsible members of this community in ending this pervasive addiction. How effective can this "war" be; and is it enough to "just say no?"

Our worship service begins at 10:30 a.m. All are welcome. We will be celebrating the sacrament of Baptism.

New England Contradance

A New England Contradance will be held on Saturday, September 23rd, at the Rochester Grange Hall, Hartley Road, Rochester from 8 to 11 p.m.

Music for the dance will be performed live. Typical instruments for contradance music include fiddle, piano and acoustic bass.

This dance is held regularly, every 4th Saturday of the month.

A Thank You

Everyone knows that Mattapoisett is Special, but it is the Special people who live in our town who make it possible.

To many of you, too numerous to mention by name, we extend our thanks for the many cards, telephone calls, flowers, Masses and donations to St. Anthony's Church in her memory.

During Emily's nine week stay at Tobey Hospital, she also received many cards and flowers. Since she was unable to personally thank her many friends, please accept our appreciation for these and all your kind thoughts and concern.

She spent all of her 87 years in Mattapoisett, and enjoyed every minute of it. She considered everyone to be her friend, and treated them accordingly.

Everyone was Special to her!

We shall all miss her.

OPEN TRYOUTS

Open tryouts will be held at the Marion Art Center, corner Main and Pleasant Streets at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, September 25th. We're looking for new faces (and would be glad to see old, familiar ones, too) to help in all phases of theater in anticipation of the 1990 season.

Currently, the Globe Theater Troupe is in rehearsal at the Art Center for "Look Back in Anger" to be presented in October. Directed by Eric Spencer and featuring Christopher LeBlanc in the leading role, this production should be challenging as well as rewarding for all concerned.

MODERN FOLK CONCERT

A concert featuring the modern folk group "Acoustic Medicine" will be presented at the Marion Art Center on Saturday, September 30th, at 7:30 p.m. for one performance only. The lead vocalist is Nancy Coykendall Goddard, daughter of Dorothy Coykendall of Marion. Nancy first learned to play the guitar at the Marion Art Center as a young teenager. Since then she has moved to California, married and recorded two albums. Since the group has been together they have performed at colleges and in clubs all over the west coast from Los Angeles to Seattle. Their stop in Marion is part of an east coast tour culminating in the Full Circle Equinox Festival in the Berkshires.

Tickets are $5. for members and students, $7. general admission. Reservations are recommended. Please call 748-1266.

LOCAL WOMEN TO SERVE ON BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Two local women have been elected to serve on the Board of Directors of the League of Women Voters of Massachusetts for the next two years. Claire Russell of Marion will serve as Secretary and Joan Andersen of Mattapoisett will act as Social Policy Coordinator for the 70 year old statewide organization.

Ms. Russell has been active on the state board since 1983 in the portfolios of Membership and Local League Communications. On the local level she has been a vice-president, bulletin editor, education director and a member of the observer corps. The Radcliffe graduate has also donated her services to the Regional High School Advisory Committee and to college admissions.

Ms. Andersen has been a member of the state board since 1980 when she was a Field Service Consultant. She has been a director, Nominating Chair and Treasurer since 1985. She received a B.A. degree in Philosophy from Tufts University and has done graduate study in Clinical Psychology.

State President Risa Nyman said that she is excited at the prospect of serving with these two women. "They have a wealth of experience that is invaluable to the state league and I am extremely pleased that they are continuing to serve this unique volunteer-run organization."

The LWVM welcomes new members and inquiries. It is the third largest league in the nation and has been working for voters service and education for seven decades. For more information please call 617-523-2999.

TOXICS & HAZARDOUS MATERIALS WORKSHOP

There seem to be more and more toxic and hazardous materials bombarding our environment, and fewer places to dispose of them. What effect do these toxic and hazardous materials have on your life and the lives of those around you? How can you control the use of hazardous chemicals in your own households and offices?

"Toxics and Hazardous Materials", the fourth in a series of Buzzards Bay Issues workshops, will address these questions and others of concern to towns in the Buzzards Bay watershed. The session will be held on Saturday, September 30th, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at Tabor Academy in Marion. Pre-registration is preferred, but registration at the door is available as long as space remains.

To register for this workshop or the one remaining workshop, Sewage Treatment Options, please call the Lloyd Center at 990-0505. The fee for any of these workshops is $5. which covers the registration materials and lunch.

Now is the time for people concerned about the future of Buzzards Bay to get involved. Local government officials, representatives of environmental organizations and private citizens can make a difference by participating in these workshops. Your input, comments and feedback are essential to the successful implementation of a master ing. MCC requested cost estimates, square footage, valuation. Continued to 8:10 p.m. September 27th.

Richard A. Butler, Allen's Point Road - Continued hearing on NOI to repair existing septic system. Continued again at applicant's request to October 11. Selectman Pratt discussed Board of Health matters and continuing problems with building code violations in flood-zone new construction. Building Inspector seems unaware of flood plain requirements.

MCC will meet only twice monthly in future because weekly meetings, usually lasting until midnight, plus weekly weekend site inspections, create impossible workload for volunteer board. Applicants will have to "take a number and wait".

Selectmen are sympathetic and will support the Conservation Commission.

Orders of Condition were issued to William Pendergast and Paul Nordstrom; and denials were issued to Zora Enterprises and James Muse. Certificates of Compliance were approved for Claude Hoopes, Gilbert Jones, and Carole Salerno; but were refused to Norman Shachoy and Wayne Asker. Positive Determinations were voted for James Schermerhorn and Maurice Smith. Notices of Intent will be required for work on these sites.

The sum of $485 was transferred from the Conservation fund to pay for marine water testing by Save Our Seas.

The next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, September 27th, at 7 p.m. A site visit to the Hagemann property (see above) will take place at 9 a.m. Sunday, September 17th.

Society's Ashumet Holly and Wildlife Sanctuary. This year's Franklinia Festival will be held on Saturday, September 23rd, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The theme for the Festival will be Fall walks which will focus on three unusual trees which were discovered by plant explorers.

Each guided walk will be proceeded by a 10-minute slide program about the Franklinia tree. For children there will be pony rides and a natural history Scavenger Hunt at 11 a.m.

The gift shop will be open and will feature fall crafts, handmade by the Ashumet Volunteers. Refreshments will be available.

The Franklinia Festival is sponsored by the Friends of Ashumet, and all proceeds are used to maintain the sanctuary. Admission is $3.00 for adults, and free for Mass. NEW EDUCATION INITIATIVE
AT NBGM

Peter C. Bullard, President of The New Bedford Glass Museum's Board of Trustees, has announced a new five-year initiative on community educational programs offered by the Glass Museum.

Along with his announcement, Mr. Bullard released the roster of fourteen classes offered by the Museum to adults and children in the fall semester.

This will be the first time that art classes for children, aged 4-15, will be offered in central New Bedford. The emphasis in all classes, for both adults and children, will be on small sizes and excellence of instruction.

Included in the roster for adults will be seven classes, meeting weekly for six weeks, beginning the week of October 10.

"New Bedford Heritage" will be an intense, fascinating look at our City, its economic and social history, its archeo-

From Old Colony

FRESHMAN PARENTS' NIGHT

The Guidance Department at Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School will conduct its third Annual Freshman Parents' Night on Wednesday, September 27th, at 6:30 p.m.

According to Paula Simmons of Old Colony's Guidance Department, the program will provide parents with an overview of the educational philosophy and policies of the school. In addition, parents will go through their child's entire exploratory program in order to learn the unique features of each vocational facility.

The exploratory program at Old Colony allows every freshman to be introduced to four of the school's twelve vocational programs. At the end of the eight week exploratory program the students are better prepared to make a permanent career selection.

At the Parents' Night instructors will be available to present their related and shop programs and to answer questions pertaining to occupational opportunities available to graduates of their program.

A FRANK DISCUSSION" AIRS ON CABLE

"AIDS and Adolescents: A Frank Discussion" is a videotape of an informal discussion between an experienced and respected AIDS adolescent educator, Shoshana Rosenfeld of the Massachusetts Department of Public Health, and a group of 14 high school students from Arlington, MA. YMCA Fall Registration

"The Greater New Bedford YMCA strengthens more than muscles," according to Jeff Golding, Associate Executive Director. "We offer programs that strengthen family relationships and help individuals to grow in body, mind and spirit. YMCA programs also help people grow personally, clarify values, improve personal and family relationships, appreciate diversity, become better leaders and supporters, develop specific skills and most importantly have fun!"

Classes for the Fall I session began on Monday, September 18th, and registration for many classes is still being held. "In order to enhance the quality of our programs, particularly those involving skill instruction, the program sessions have been expanded to seven weeks from six", adds Golding.

The line-up of fall programs includes swimming lessons for all ages from 6 months to adult, a variety of fitness and health enhancement classes, and programs for youth including youth sports and
